ORLANDO PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA "SPRING POPS" WILL CELEBRATE 60TH WINTER PARK SIDEWALK ART FESTIVAL

CITY OF WINTER PARK

401 Park Avenue South

Winter Park, Florida

32789-4386

WINTER PARK, Fla., an internationally recognized ICMA Excellence Award winner with accredited fire-rescue, police, and parks & recreation agencies (February 21, 2019) – In celebration of the Winter Park Sidewalk Art Festival's 60th year, the City of Winter Park will proudly host the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra Sunday, March 17, 2019, at 3 p.m., in charming Central Park. This special Spring Pops concert performance is made possible by a generous grant from the Charlotte Julia Hollander Trust and Elizabeth Morse Genius Foundation. The concert is free and open to the public. Bring your blankets and lawn chairs to enjoy an afternoon of heart-warming music as we pay tribute to 60 years of one of the most prestigious art festivals in the country.

Music Director Eric Jacobsen will lead the Philharmonic in a program including original songs by Christina Courtin and other popular tunes by Neil Diamond and The Beatles, as well as classical favorites by Rossini and Wagner. Featured guest artists will be American singer, violinist and songwriter Christina Courtin, and local violin prodigy Leah Flynn.
